FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Case No. 3:20-cr-00290-YY

Plaintiff,

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING DATE

vs.

LILLITH ETIENNE GRIN,

Defendant.

---

The defendant, Lillith Grin, through counsel, Michelle Sweet, moves the Court to enter an Order continuing the sentencing hearing in the above-captioned case for approximately 60 days (i.e., until September 6, 2021). Sentencing is currently scheduled for July 7, 2021. This motion constitutes Ms. Grin's first request to continue her sentencing hearing. The government, through Assistant U.S. Attorney Paul T. Maloney, does not oppose the motion.

At present, a presentence report has been ordered in this case. Based on the plea agreement in this case, this case may not continue to sentencing. In order to avoid the probation office having to prepare a presentence report which may be unnecessary, a continuance is necessary in order to avoid the rapidly upcoming deadlines associated with the presentence report.

Ms. Grin respectfully requests that the Court continue her current sentencing date for 60 days (i.e., until September 6, 2021).

Respectfully submitted this 18th day of May, 2021.
